

3rd ICPerMed Workshop: Personalised Medicine: How to Ensure Value-based Implementation

21st – 22nd June 2022

Venue: (Marriott Brussels)

Workshop Program

21st of June

11:00 – 11:45 Registration & buffet lunch

11:45 – 12:05 Welcome & Introduction

Ejner Moltzen (ICPerMed Chair)

xx (European Commission Representative)

Gaetano Guglielmi (ICPerMed Secretariat, Italian Ministry of Health, Italy)

12:05 – 13:15 ICPerMed 'Best Practice in Personalised Medicine' Recognition 2021

Award ceremony (10 min) and oral presentations of awardees (3 x 15 min and Q&As)

Moderator: Gaetano Guglielmi

13:15 - 13:30 Short Break incl cont'd buffet lunch

13:30 - 15:20 Introduction: Overview of the health economic area, needs, timing and possible limitations and opportunities - Keynote lectures.

13:30 – 14:20: Katherine Payne, Professor, PhD, University of Manchester: Overview of health economics in relation to personalised medicine, including both economic and societal aspects

14:20 – 14:40: Avi Israeli, Chief Scientist, Israel Ministry of Health: Implementation of personalised medicine in Israel

14:40 – 15:00: xxx: Implementation of personalised medicine in UK

15:00 – 15:20: Jennifer Brooks, Professor, PhD, University of Toronto: Implementation of personalised medicine in Canada - PERSPECTIVE I&I project

15:20 - 15:40 Coffee Break.

15:40 - 16:00 Objectives and working procedure of the Working Groups and introduction of the four panels

Moderator: Ejner Moltzen

16:00 - 18:00 Working Groups (2 themes, 4 parallel sessions)

I. Personalised medicine implementation: what should be addressed?

Session to discuss key topics in relation to personalised medicine implementation and provide recommendations to appropriately guide introduction of personalised medicine approaches in the different health care system with specific focus on value perspectives.

II. What will the evolution of the field mean for society?

As we are moving towards the “generation genome” and are seeing an increasing accessibility and interoperability of health data from a plethora of sources, an outlook into what this will mean for the evaluation and valuation of personalized medicine approaches for the health care system and public health approaches more generally.

18:00 - 18:30 Chairs/moderators of the four panels meet
Discussion of progress and planning of Day 2
Moderator: Ejner Moltzen

20:00 Dinner

22nd of June

08:30 - 09:00 Maureen Rutten-van Mölken, Professor, Erasmus University Rotterdam: HEcoPerMed outcomes and conclusions

09:00 - 11:00 Continued discussions in the four panels

11:00 - 11:30 Coffee break.

11:30 - 12:30 Final report of each Working Group
Outcomes and executive summary of key statements and recommendations
Presented by Chair/Rapporteur of each Panel.
Moderator: Ejner Moltzen

12:30 - 13:00 Wrap up & closing remarks
Workshop General Rapporteur (TBC)
xx (European Commission Representative)
Gaetano Guglielmi
Ejner Moltzen

13:00 - 14:00 Lunch.

